Dear Stallion Owner,

As a commitment to Appaloosa breeders the AABA (Australian Appaloosa Breeders Assoc) is running a Stallion Service Raffle for the 2012 breeding season. Before you start running for the hills thinking here is another Association chasing free services, this raffle is different.

We will sell tickets in a free service to one of the listed stallions. Still wondering where the difference is? Well we are not asking you to give us a service. If your stallion is selected we will pay you $1,000.00 or your advertised service fee, (which ever is the lesser). We are also running a second chance draw of a ½ price service and that fee will also go directly to the Stallion owner so the second chance winner will pay ½ the service fee and AABA will pay ½ of the advertised service fee up to a total of $1,000.00. The raffle is for the service fee only and will not include any additional costs such as veterinary, agistment or collection costs if not covered in your usual service fee so you will not be out of pocket.

“And that’s not all.....” So not only are we going to pay money for the services we are going to re-invest the money made from the raffle back into the industry to promote and invigorate the industry in accordance with AABA’s goals and aims. Some proceeds from the raffle will be allocated to classes ( a mixture of Halter and Performance classes) held at the 2013 Nationals and all progeny of the listed stallions will be eligible. These proceeds will be payable to the listed Stallion owner and the horse owner. Special incentives may also be payable at other major events and we are currently working on other fundraising ideas to create annual incentive programs to stretch across all disciplines where Appaloosa's are used.

Now for the formal matters:

- Nomination is free.
- All Appaloosa Stallions and approved outcross Stallions eligible for breeding to Appaloosas are eligible.
- Only 500 tickets will be printed and will sell for $20 per ticket or 3 tickets for $50.
- All nominated Stallions will be listed on the AABA page on the AAA website and links to the stallions website can be included.
- To be eligible for the 2013 National Show incentives the owner of the Stallion (including any outcross Stallions) and the owner of the progeny shown must be a AAA and AABA member. Both the Appaloosa progeny of any stallions listed, and the Stallion owner will be eligible for the incentives at the 2013 AAA Nationals.

So this is a win / win situation for everyone and we commend it to you and hope we can list your stallion for the raffle. An application form is attached.

Regards,

Margaret O'Brien,
AABA Chairman.
